WSC Q. 51. What is forbidden in the second commandment?

A. The second commandment forbiddeth the worshiping of God by images, or any other way not appointed in his Word.

Idolatry, worshiping or serving created things rather than the Creator, is a common and serious sin. We as humans are constantly tempted to corrupt our worship of the unseen God by focusing instead on those things which we can see: the things of this world – material, tangible things, which we can handle and touch. This can take many forms – from corrupt worship to a materialistic focus on worldly wealth.
