Catechism Corner

WSC Q. 15. What was the sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created?

A. The sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created, was their eating the forbidden fruit.

Vital to our entire understanding of our nature as humans, our current condition as sinners, and our hope in redemption is the doctrine of the Fall. The Bible teaches clearly that human beings were created as morally upright, without sin, but that we have fallen from that condition into a state of sin. How did this happen? We rebelled against God. This is what the catechism emphasizes. The fruit was forbidden. Only one commandment was given, but our first parents chose to rebel against God’s commandment and go their own way. Man’s nature was corrupted and can only be set right by God’s gracious work in Christ.
